

Daily Pacific Builder; September 26, 1996; page 1

New Hayward City Hall Base Isolated

Hayward City Hall is one of the first new official buildings to be built on a base isolation foundation. Just 700 feet from the Hayward fault line, it is expected to easily withstand a magnitude 7.0 earthquake. DPR Construction, using fast-track, design/build, will complete the building next year.