

Austin Business Journal; October 25-31, 1996; page 1

DPR Construction to Launch Major Semiconductor Project

DPR was selected to build a large-scale semiconductor fab plant in Richmond, VA for White Oak Semiconductor, a joint venture between Motorola Corporation and Siemens AG. The project will include five buildings -- a wafer fab, a test and assembly facility, an administration building, a commons area, and a central utilities building. The fast-track project will be ready for its first tool set on October 31, 1997.