

The Daily Review; February 21, 1997, cover story

Salute to In-progress City Hall Slated for February 28

In this front page article, DPR is credited for the smooth progress of the new Hayward City Hall. A ceremony has been scheduled to commemorate the first major construction milestone. Assistant city manager Gordon Anderson said the actual construction of the City Hall during the 16-month building schedule is no problem, because of the planning and hiring of a "construction team" instead of bidding each service individually.